

The king, O Lord, with songs of praise

New Version of Tate and Brady (1696)

Psalm 21, vv. 1-4

"Sandwich New"
by William Knapp (c1698-1768)
Edited by Francis Roads

[♩=80]

Soprano

1. The king, O Lord, with songs of praise, Shall in thy—
 2. For thou what - e'er his lips re - quest Not on - ly
 3. Thy good - ness and thy ten - der care Have all his
 4. He prayed for life, and thou O Lord Did'st to his

Alto

1. The king, O Lord, with songs of praise, Shall in thy
 2. For thou what - e'er his lips re - quest Not on - ly
 3. Thy good - ness and thy ten - der care Have all his
 4. He prayed for life, and thou O Lord Did'st to his

Tenor
[Air]

1. The king, O Lord, with songs of praise, Shall in thy
 2. For thou what - e'er his lips re - quest Not on - ly
 3. Thy good - ness and thy ten - der care Have all his
 4. He prayed for life, and thou O Lord Did'st to his

Bass

1. The king, O Lord, with songs of praise, Shall in thy
 2. For thou what - e'er his lips re - quest Not on - ly
 3. Thy good - ness and thy ten - der care Have all his
 4. He prayed for life, and thou O Lord Did'st to his

5

S

strength re - joice, With thy sal - va - tion crowned, shall raise
 does im - part, But has with thy ac - cep - tance blest
 hopes out - gone, A crown of gold thou mad'st him wear, prayers at - tend; And gra - ci - ously to him af - ford

A

strength re - joice, With thy sal - va - tion crowned, shall raise
 does im - part, But has with thy ac - cep - tance blest
 hopes out - gone, A crown of gold thou mad'st him wear, prayers at - tend; And gra - ci - ously to him af - ford

T

strength re - joice, With thy sal - va - tion crowned, shall raise
 does im - part, But has with thy ac - cep - tance blest
 hopes out - gone, A crown of gold thou mad'st him wear, prayers at - tend; And gra - ci - ously to him af - ford

B

strength re - joice, With thy sal - va - tion crowned, shall raise
 does im - part, But has with thy ac - cep - tance blest
 hopes out - gone, A crown of gold thou mad'st him wear,
 prayers at - tend; And gra - ci - ously to him af - ford

The king, O Lord, with songs of praise

11

S
To heaven his cheer - ful voice,
The wish - es of his heart,
And set'st it firm - ly on,
A life that ne'er shall end,

A
To heaven his
The wish - es
And set'st it
A life that

T
8
To heaven his cheer - ful voice,
The wish - es of his heart,
And set'st it firm - ly on,
A life that ne'er shall end,

B
To heaven his cheer - ful voice,
The wish - es of his heart,
And set'st it firm - ly on,
A life that ne'er shall end,

14

S
To heaven his cheer - ful voice, his cheer - ful voice.
The wish - es of his heart, The wish - es of his heart.
And set'st it firm - ly, set'st it firm - ly on.
A life that ne'er shall end, that ne'er shall end.

A
cheer - ful voice, To heaven his cheer - ful voice.
of his heart, The wish - es of his heart.
firm - ly on, And set'st it firm - ly on.
ne'er shall end, A life that ne'er shall end.

T
8
his cheer - ful voice, To heaven his cheer - ful voice.
es of his heart, The wish - es of his heart.
it firm - ly on, And set'st it firm - ly on.
that ne'er shall end, A life that ne'er shall end.

B
To heaven his cheer - ful voice, his cheer - ful voice.
The wish - es of his heart, The wish - es of his heart.
And set'st it firm - ly, set'st it firm - ly on.
A life that ne'er shall end, that ne'er shall end.

The tune Sandwich New was first published in William Knapp's New Church Melody in 1753; however, Temperley's Hymn Tune Index (Oxford, 1998) makes no attribution.