2. To Adam's sons, an exiled race,
 Their God himself, with wondrous grace,
 Hath come and sought to them
 Who sought him not; and they surprised
 Behold a light that leads to Christ,
 The star of Bethlehem.
 CHORUS

3. Clear from the heavens, a ray of love
 Stood over Mary's house, and wove
 A dazzling diadem!
 Ring out your joy, all Christians true,
 And may Christ's light be seen by you,
 His star of Bethlehem.
 CHORUS

4. Man is no lonely wanderer now,
 Since on the infant Jesus' brow
 First shone that peaceful beam;
 One with us in our low estate,
 He lifts our heart to heaven's high gate!
 Hail, star of Bethlehem!
