2. O thou, who to my humble prayer,
 Didst always bend thy listening ear,
 To thee shall all mankind repair,
 And at thy gracious throne appear.

4. Blest is the man, who, near thee placed,
 Within thy sacred dwellings lives!
 Whilst we at humble distance taste,
 The vast delights thy temple gives.

3. Our sins, though numberless, in vain,
 To stop thy flowing mercy try;
 Whilst thou o'erlookst the guilty stain,
 And washest out the crimson dye.

5. By wondrous acts, O God, most just,
 Have we thy gracious answer found;
 In thee remotest nations trust,
 And those whom stormy waves surround.

6. God by his strength, sets fast the hills,
 And does his matchless power engage,
 With which the sea's loud waves he stills,
 And angry clouds tumultuous rage.

Original a tone higher.
