

O God, my gracious God, to thee

Psalm 63 vv. 1-5

"Hymn 19", by Phocion Henley (1728-64)
Edited by Robert Barr and Francis Roads

New Version of Tate and Brady (1696)

Moderato [♩=100]

Soprano [Air]

1. O God, my gra - cious God, to thee
2. O to my long - ing eyes once more
3. My life, while I that life en - joy,

Alto

Tenor

1. O God, my grac - cious God, to thee My
2. O to my long - ing eyes once more That
3. My life, while I that life en - joy, In

Bass

4

S My mor - ning pray'rs shall of - fered be;
That view of glo - rious pow'r re - store,
In bles - sing God I will em - ploy,

A

T

B

8

S For thee my thir - sty soul doth pant;
Which thy ma - jes - tic house dis - plays;
With lif - ted hands a - dore his name;

A

T

B

O God, my gracious God, to thee

12

S
My fain - ting flesh im - plores thy grace,
Be - cause to me thy won - drous love
My soul's con - tent shall be as great

A

T
8
My fain - ting flesh im - plores thy grace,
Be - cause to me thy won - drous love
My soul's con - tent shall be as great

B

16

S
With - in this dry and bar - ren place,
Than life it - self doth dea - rer prove,
As theirs, who choi - cest dain - ties eat,

A

T
8
With - in this dry and bar - ren place,
Than life it - self doth dea - rer prove,
As theirs, who choi - cest dain - ties eat,

B

20

S
Where I re - fre - shing wa - ters want,
My lips shall al - ways speak thy praise,
While I with joy his praise pro - claim.

A

T
8
Where I re - fre - shing wa - - ters want.
My lips shall al - ways speak thy praise.
While I with joy his praise pro - claim.

B