

Come all with us, harmonious tongues

Adapted (anon.) from Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

"Bromsgrove", attrib. Thomas Collins (fl 1790)

Edited by Francis Roads

[♩=80]

Soprano [Air]
Come all with us, har- mo- nious tongues, Your no- blest mu - sic bring. Our Sa- viour

Alto
Come all with us, har- mo- nious tongues, Your no- blest mu - sic bring. Our Sa- viour

Tenor
Come all with us, har- mo- nious tongues, Your no- blest mu - sic bring. Our Sa- viour

Bass
Come all with us, har- mo- nious tongues, Your no- blest mu - sic bring. Our Sa- viour

Keyboard

9
S
Christ this day_ was born, With joy_ to him we sing, With joy_ to_ him we sing.

A
Christ this day was born, With joy_ to him we sing, With joy to him we sing.

T
Christ this day was born, With joy to him we sing, With joy_ to him we_ sing.

B
Christ this day was born, With joy to him we sing, With joy to him we sing.

Kbd.

2. The King of glory sent his Son
To mortals here on earth.
Behold the midnight bright as noon,
Whilst angels sing his birth.

3. About our young Redeemer's head
Behold, what glories meet!
A glorious star is risen to lead
The sages to his feet.

4. Glory to God in highest strains,
And peace on earth be given!
For now the infant Saviour comes
With messengers from heaven.

Circled numbers correspond with lines of text.