

Marked ye the star, whose influence mild?

Anon.

Anon.

Edited by Francis Roads

[♩=126]

Soprano [Air] Marked ye the star whose in - fluence mild, Shed ra - dience

Alto Marked ye the star whose in - fluence mild, Shed ra - dience

Tenor Marked ye the star whose in - fluence mild, Shed ra - dience.

Bass Marked ye the star whose in - fluence mild, Shed ra - dience

Keyboard

6

S on the heav'n - ly child? Heard ye the

A on the heav'n - ly child? Heard ye the

T on the heav'n - ly child?

B on the heav'n - ly child? Heard ye the strain from yon - der sky,

Kbd.

2. Heard ye a voice seraphic sweet
Rise shepherds and your Saviour greet;
To Bethle'em haste and there you'll find,
A soothing balm for heavy mind.

3. Come let us join this heav'nly mirth
Now the Messiah's come on earth;
That all mankind may see and know,
What love on us he did bestow.

4. He comes our sinful race to bless
With joy and peace and happiness;
Then let us all with one accord,
Sing Hallelujah to the Lord.

Marked ye the star

13

S strain from yon - der sky, Raised by those min - strels from on

A strain from yon - der sky, Raised by those min - strels from on

T

B

Kbd.

18

S high, Raised by those min - strels from on high?

A high, Raised by those min - strels from on high?

T Raised by those min - strels from on high?

B Raised by those min - strels from on high?

Kbd.

Emendation:

Bars 12-18 note 1 bass: Pickard-Cambridge underlays text to this passage, but it is probably an instrumental bass.

Circled numbers correspond with lines of text;
 □ □ show instrumental notes.